

Be part of a mission that benefits everyone.

We have a wide range of employment needs, from wildlife officers and researchers to clerical and support personnel. Many positions require a four-year degree in biology or natural resources.

Temporary jobs and volunteering are a good path for students or others considering a career in wildlife management.

“I started as a temporary, seasonal worker, got experience in the field, and decided to make wildlife my career.”

Discover the many career possibilities the Colorado Division of Wildlife offers. Discover Your Dream Job.

For More Information?

www.wildlife.state.co.us/Jobs

Sign up for e-mails about new job openings!

Job Hotline

303-291-7527

The State of Colorado is an equal opportunity employer.

Colorado Division of Wildlife

303-297-1192 • www.wildlife.state.co.us

The Colorado Division of Wildlife is the state agency responsible for managing wildlife and its habitat, as well as providing wildlife-related recreation. The Division is funded through hunting and fishing license fees, federal grants and Colorado Lottery proceeds through Great Outdoors Colorado.

What's Your Dream Job?

Keeping Colorado Wild

This brochure is recyclable: If you do not intend to keep this publication, please pass it along to another interested person, or donate it to a local school or library.

11/2009—7,000

COLORADO DIVISION OF WILDLIFE

Imagine Your Dream Job

COLORADO DIVISION OF WILDLIFE
6060 Broadway • Denver, CO 80216
303-297-1192 • www.wildlife.state.co.us

“When I tell people I get to ride horses in my work, they think I am kidding.”

“People give me encouragement and open gates at the DOW. It’s a really supportive place to work.”

“A stable job, great salary and benefits plus fun and interesting work—it’s the best of all worlds.”

“I’ve helped bring the endangered black-footed ferret back to Colorado.”

“My work in the fish hatchery benefits everybody.”

“I spend most of my time working with people to do my job protecting wildlife.”

“My supervisor encourages me to take a break from the office to work outdoors on wildlife projects.”

The Colorado Division of Wildlife has a Place for You.

- Accounting
- Administrative Assistant
- Customer Service
- District Wildlife Manager
- Education Coordinator
- Engineer
- Fish Hatchery Technician
- GIS Specialist
- Management
- Property Technician
- Public Information Officer
- Veterinarian
- Wildlife Biologist
- Wildlife Researcher

Find more positions and opportunities at www.wildlife.state.co.us/Jobs